On The Day

The weather was hot and sunny with the temperature climbing to 32c.

Of the 39 archers booked in to start five decided not to shoot and one archer failed to turn up or notify the TO.

The remaining 33 archers shot under the control of Riki Teml the judge for the day. Three archers decided not to complete the Herford but stayed to the end of the shoot. The free drinks provided by the club were welcome from all who shot and those who were supporting the shoot.

Trophies were presented to all the winners by the Lady Paramount Dr Gillian Pratt who also awarded the Lady P prize to Christopher Pickford of Tockington Archers.

My thanks go to Riki Teml for his style of judging that may the day very enjoyable.

And to those Bath Archers who turned up on Saturday and Sunday to help set up and clear the field after the shoot, the club really appreciates and values your help.
