■ ARCHERY Sunday saw the shooting season at Bath Archers' ground in Batheaston officially open, and it was a busy afternoon with 31 competitors - probably a record attendance for a club-only event. The Margaret Lewis Arrow for the outright senior winner went to Paul Tuffs, pictured, shooting longbow. The Gwen Crocker Trophy for members with less than three years' experience was won by Paul Wilson shooting barebow. The Tudor Rose Veterans Trophy for over-65s was claimed by Allan Lippiatt shooting longbow.

Archers member Steve Walker said: "It was great to see so many archers competing on the day. The club has expanded recently, with quite a few new faces. Anybody interested in taking up the sport should check out our beginners' courses for 2022, on our website: Batharchers.org."
